

Through the logistical difficulties across Japan in the wake of the March 2011 national disaster, MovingJapan provided me with a first rate, stress-free service, keeping me informed every step of the way, always responding in a friendly and cooperative manner to my queries and worries, even arranging for me to visit their warehouse to supervise safe packing of my valuable goods. I highly recommend them.

PH

United Kingdom