

No, all food & beverage products are strictly prohibited and cannot be sent. Food and beverages includes spices, dietary supplements, vitamins, teas, medicines etc. Sending such items can result in significant added expenses and fines. For detailed information on restricted items that cannot be sent check with your customs and quarantine authority at destination.

Please also refer to Customs F.A.Q.