

What happens if the packing list doesn't match ?

If the number of items on the packing list is different to the number of items received at the warehouse ~ customs export approval cannot be received and additional handling expenses to remedy the problem will be incurred.